Children's Hospital Hematology Camp Honors Influent Inc.

July 20, 2004; Dublin, OH --- Children's Hospital of Columbus, OH has honored Influent Inc. with the 2004 Hematology Camp Award for Largest Corporate Sponsor. As the largest corporate contributor and participant in the 2004 Hematology Camp Golf Outing, Influent played a significant role in helping Children's Hospital to raise money used for its annual children's camp.

The Children's Hospital section of Hematology, Oncology, Blood and Marrow Transplantation evaluates and provides comprehensive care for neonates, infants, children and adolescents with acute and chronic blood disorders and cancer. Each year, the hospital runs a special camp experience for children with cancer or other blood diseases and their families.

Influent and its employees support several community service organizations, but are particularly proud to be a part of the Children's Hospital event. Influent knows first-hand the benefit gained by children attending the Hematology Camp. Three-year old Hannah Witt, daughter of long-term employee John Witt, is a direct beneficiary of the many wonderful programs at the Hematology Camp.

"What a great show of support and camaraderie, not only to have 32 of my colleagues want to offer their encouragement, but to have Influent back the support financially and match all the dollars raised was uplifting," stated John, "words cannot express the gratitude I feel." Influent strives to be a good corporate citizen by partnering with community service organizations and supporting the philanthropic efforts of its employees.
